Needs Analysis

There are four stages in needs analysis:

1. what you need to know about a language,
2. your present problems,
3. your future needs, and
4. your needs for your course.

Click here for a Needs Analysis / Planning / Studying / Assessment Form that you can print out and fill in.

Problems

Make a list of the problems that you have when you are listening, and the situations where you have these problems. For example:

Example Problem 1: Foreigners talk too fast.

Example Problem 2: I can't understand every word.

Future Needs

Think about what English you will need in future, for example for your job. Here are some examples:

Example Future Need 1: I will need to listen and understand in meetings.

Example Future Need 2: I will need to listen and understand in presentations.

Example Future Need 3: I will need to listen to my boss's instructions.

Example Future Need 4: I want to work for an international company, so my English, including listening, must be very good.

Needs for Your Course

If you are a student you probably need to study English to help you with your course work; e.g. for listening to lectures. Some example needs are:

Example Course Need 1: I need to listen to lectures.

Example Course Need 2: I need to listen and speak in seminars.
